

Contemporary Security Canada is hiring Supervisors to work at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games

Securing an international event takes the dedication of thousands of employees with varying levels of experience across multiple disciplines.

Contemporary Security Canada (CSC) is looking to hire a workforce of approximately 5000 who will be responsible for maintaining the safety and security of the Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

Do you have 2 years of experience leading a team of 5 or more people? Looking to work in a fast paced environment? Possess strong motivational and relationship skills? Interested in meeting people from around the world? If so, we have a position for you!

CSC is looking for enthusiastic, experienced Supervisors to work at the 2010 Olympics.

Supervisors are responsible for the management of GSS operations and the supervision of Screeners and X-ray Operators at their assigned areas.

Our combined experience makes us the ideal choice to maintain the safety and security of Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

Supervisor perks include the following: competitive pay rate of $20 per hour, completion bonus of $2.50 per hour*, BST Training, modified benefits plan, uniform, fulltime hours, Olympic Games experience.

What will your 2010 Olympic experience be? Hiring is well underway, and positions are filling quickly. To ensure you don't miss out on this once in a life time experience, apply now.
