

Contemporary Security Canada Kicks Off Hiring Center Events

Securing an international event takes the dedication of thousands of employees with varying levels of experience across multiple disciplines.

Contemporary Security Canada (CSC) is looking to hire a workforce of 5000 who will be responsible for maintaining the safety and security of the Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

With the Hiring Center in full operation, Contemporary Security Canada has kicked off a series of events for special groups. These events will invite groups into the Hiring Center on dedicated days to go through the hiring process from interview to conditional job offer.

On Monday, September 14th; representatives from the First Nations Employment Society and the Four Host Nations were onsite. The day started with a traditional prayer ceremony and battle song performed by Coast Salish Artist, Jody Broomfield from Squamish Nation.

Throughout the day there were many successful applicants leaving with job offers, excited to experience the 2010 Winter Games first hand. "I'm in awe of being hired" stated Barbara Windsor. Windsor, who will be joining CSC as a Screener is most looking forward to being directly involved in the exciting games environment and the people she'll meet.

Hiring is well underway, and positions are filling quickly. To ensure you don't miss out on this once in a life time experience, apply now.

Our combined experience makes us the ideal choice to maintain the safety and security of Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

Step 1: Visit www.hireme2010.com to check your eligibility and complete the online application.

Step 2: Visit CSC's Hiring Center located 333 Terminal Avenue in Vancouver (1 block east of the Main Street/Science World Skytrain station) to interview and if successful, leave with a conditional job offer to work at the Vancouver 2010 Winter Games.
