

Contemporary Security Canada offers a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to work at the 2010 Winter Games

Securing an international event takes the dedication of thousands of employees with varying levels of experience across multiple disciplines.

Contemporary Security Canada (CSC) is looking to hire a workforce of 5000 who will be responsible for maintaining the safety and security of the Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

For several members of the CSC team, Vancouver will be their 7th Games worked. Thousands of people being hired by CSC for Gamestime Security Screening (GSS) positions will become a part of history while gaining invaluable experience and memories.

The memories are extensive for CSC's Trevor Walsh - Human Resources, who has worked the Sydney, Salt Lake City and Athens Olympic games.

For Trevor, his first highlight included standing under the flag pole during the 2000 Sydney Olympics, when Canada's flag was raised for Simon Whitfield's triathlon win.

Our combined experience makes us the ideal choice to maintain the safety and security of Games guests and participants at the 27 competition and non-competition venues across Vancouver and Whistler.

The second highlight occurred at the end of the Games when the athletes were leaving. Trevor and his co-workers traded pieces of their uniforms with athletes which left him with Jamaican track pants, a Canadian jacket, and a hat from Brazil.

What will your 2010 Olympic experience be? Hiring is well underway, and positions are filling quickly. To ensure you don't miss out on this once in a life time experience, apply now.
